WELCOME TO BIG HEAD'S, GROSSE TETE, LOUISIANA

The Village of Grosse Tete is a small community located just west of Baton Rouge and east of the Atchafalaya Spillway. The winding bayou roads are filled with beautiful live oak trees, green pastures & rustic fence lines. The Bayou is the heart of this small community and the people are the soul. It's been said that Grosse Tete, which means "Big Head" in French, got its name from a big-headed Choctaw Indian who lived and hunted in the area when it was first settled by Acadians.
